New Stamp in Honor of Abraham Lincoln's 205th Birthday

wifr.com

SPRINGFIELD (AP) -- A new commemorative stamp will be released to mark Abraham Lincoln's 205th birthday.

U.S. Postal Service officials will at the Old State Capitol in Springfield February 12th to unveil the new stamp. The stamp will feature an image of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington.

Lincoln and his family lived in Springfield for more than two decades before he was elected as the country's 16th president in 1860. Lincoln worked out of the capitol building as both a lawyer and a politician.

He delivered his famous "House Divided" speech in the building's Representatives Hall and based his presidential campaign there. It was also one of the spots where Lincoln's body laid in state following his April 1865 assassination

U.S. Postal Service Honors President Abraham Lincoln With a New Stamp

February 2014 - SPRINGFIELD, IL — The U.S. Postal Service today honored President Abraham Lincoln with a new stamp issued at the second-ounce rate for envelopes and mailings that require additional postage, during a ceremony at the Old State Capitol. Customers may purchase the 21-cent stamp at usps.com/stamps, 800-STAMP24 (800-782-6724) and at Post Offices nationwide.

"This is a proud day for the Postal Service, for the people of Springfield, and for everyone who continues to draw inspiration from the life and legacy of Abraham Lincoln," said Jeffrey Williamson, chief human resources officer and executive vice president.

"The mail is where special memories are made. That was true during Lincoln's lifetime. It's true now. And that's why I want to encourage everyone to use the new Lincoln stamp from the United States Postal Service," Williamson said. "This stamp is an ideal way to make special memories through the mail."

The stamp features a black-and-white photograph with a close-up view of the statue of Abraham Lincoln by sculptor Daniel Chester French that is housed inside the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, DC. The image is slightly cropped to showcase the President's rugged facial features. Carol Highsmith took the original photograph. Art director Derry Noyes designed the stamp.

Joining Williamson to dedicate the Lincoln stamp were David Martin, district manager and lead executive, Gateway District; Philip Geraci, postmaster, Springfield, IL; Amy Martin, director, Illinois Historic Preservation Agency; and the Lincoln Land Community College Choir.

Customers may view the Abraham Lincoln stamp, as well as many of this year's other stamps, on Facebook at facebook.com/USPSStamps, on Twitter@@USPSstamps or at USPSstamps.com.
